The Last Ferry

THE FILLED GRID

WALKTHROUGH

June Harlow was in the ticket booth (Clue 1). The brass key was not in the baggage cage and was not at the fuel dock (Clue 3), so it was either in the ticket booth or in the canteen. The person in the canteen had the enamel coffee pot (Clue 2), so the key was not in the canteen. The key was therefore in the ticket booth with June.

Ellis Boone was neither in the canteen nor at the fuel dock (Clue 4), and the ticket booth is already June's, so Ellis was in the baggage cage.

The mooring line was at the fuel dock (Clue 5). Priya Shah was not at the fuel dock (Clue 6), so Tomas Reid had the mooring line at the fuel dock.

The two remaining assignments are the coffee pot in the canteen and the boat hook in the baggage cage. Ellis is already in the baggage cage, so he had the boat hook. Priya Shah had the enamel coffee pot in the canteen.

The Known Fact names the boat hook. That person is Ellis Boone, in the baggage cage.

Linnea tied off Walt Dennison's file the way a line is tied off at a bollard, and walked up from the slip in the dark.
